TBPA Mission Statement

The mission of the Tennessee Backflow Prevention Association is to protect drinking water quality in the State of Tennessee by providing for education, statewide training, standardized certification, technical assistance and resources to our membership and the general public.

President's Message

What strange and intense Spring weather we have had across the State. I hope that no one lost a friend or family member, and my sympathies are with those who did. For those of us with property loss or damage, stay strong, for I know we will come out on the other side better than ever. Here in Clarksville and middle Tennessee we took a one-two punch on back to back weekends, with strong winds, microburst and tornadoes on the weekend prior to the catastrophic flooding that occurred May 1-4, 2010. Keep all of our members in your thoughts and prayers.

Other topics; I had the opportunity to attend the National ABPA Conference in New Orleans, LA in May. What a wonderful city, it has something for everyone, as did the conference. Sessions were offered ranging from communication to repair and testing. If any of you are ever able to attend a National Conference I would highly recommend you do so.

Of course, by attending the national conference I missed out on the TAUD Expo held in Lebanon where TBPA had a booth, thanks to those who worked hard in supporting TBPA at this event.

We are now excitedly looking forward to the upcoming TAUD Conference in August and the TBPA Conference in October. Any of you attending the TAUD Conference in Gatlinburg this year, be sure to stop by our booth and bring along a friend who isn't a member, let's see if we can impress them and boost our membership.

I am still looking for entries for our Best/Worst Day on the job competition. The winner will be announced at our Annual Conference in Murfreesboro.

Looking forward to seeing all of you soon.... I light my candle from your torch.

Angel Goike
President TBPA
